

Capstone 2: Document Spec

DESKTOP

The desktop view of the Colmar Academy website features a top navigation bar with links for 'On campus', 'Online for companies', 'Sign in', and a search bar. Below the header, there's a large image of two students working at a desk, followed by a section titled 'Learn something new everyday' with a placeholder text. Further down are sections for 'Orientation date', 'Our campus', 'Our guest lecture', and 'Start learning' which lists courses in Software engineering, Computer art, Design, Data, Business, and Marketing. A 'Thesis exhibit' section follows, featuring a video player and images related to Fisma: Design and Prototype. At the bottom, there's a 'Reimagine urban' section with a video player and a 'Now and then' section showing a New York skyline.

MOBILE

The mobile view of the website is a simplified version of the desktop site. It includes a top navigation bar with icons for user profile and sign-in. Below are sections for 'Orientation date', 'Our campus', 'Special guest lecture', 'Start learning' (listing Software engineering, Computer art, Design, Data, Business, and Marketing), 'Thesis exhibits', and a video player at the bottom.
